House Concept I – With Pueblo consensus map integrated

To view the full-detail map or submit modifications, click the Distictr link below:

<https://districtr.org/plan/43318>

Objectives:

- Based on concept D, with the added goal of integrating the Pueblo consensus map.
- Status quo oriented plan with fixes to account for population shifts in the current map and other improvements.
- Creates 5 strong Native American districts (63.7% or higher) and one Native American influence district centered around the 7 Sandoval County Pueblos.
- HD 40 and HD 70 are maintained with HD 40 continuing to cross over the Sangre de Christos into Rio Arriba County.
- Westside Albuquerque districts move northward to absorb the excess population.
- Maintains the Rio Grande as a hard boundary north of I-40.
- Keeps Edgewood together.
- Silver City unified into one district.
- Chaparral is not split and is included in a district with Anthony.
- More Hispanic neighborhoods (communities of interest) are included in the Roswell and Hobbs minority districts.
